

WEDDING

Whether your Bridal Party is being introduced by a member of the band, a deejay or the house emcee at the place you are holding your reception, this form has been designed to make things alot easier for all parties involved. Remember, if a name may be mispronounccd, spell it out phonetically. Please Print.

Grandparents and Great-Grandparents generally do not walk in with the Bridal Party, though they may wish to. If they do not walk in with the Bridal Party, they should be recognized from their tables.

Grandparents ..... sitting at table number .....
Grandparents ..... sitting at table number .....
Grandparents ..... sitting at table number .....
Grandparents ..... sitting at table number .....

If parents are divorced, remarried or widowed, introduce them by identifying them first, such as "Father of the Bride, Mr. John Smith, escorting his wife, Mary" or "Mother of the Groom, Mrs. Barbara Brown, escorted by her husband, George". Otherwise it is a standard announcement.

Brides Parents .....
.....
Grooms Parents .....
.....

Bridesmaid ..... escorted by .....
Bridesmaid ..... escorted by .....
Bridesmaid ..... escorted by .....
Bridesmaid ..... escorted by .....
Bridesmaid ..... escorted by .....
Bridesmaid ..... escorted by .....

Jr. Bridesmaid ..... escorted by Jr. Usher .....
Maid/Matron of Honor ..... escorted by Best Man .....

Flower Girl ..... escorted by Ring Bearer .....

Bride & Groom .....

First Song .....

Will someone say grace? ..... Name .....

Will someone propose a toast? ..... Name .....

Will Bride dance with her Father? .....

Will Groom dance with his Mother? .....

Will Bride throw bouquet? .....

Will Groom throw garter? .....

Will Bride & Groom cut the cake? .....

Anniversaries / Birthdays / Special announcements .....

